<sup>2</sup> If the navigable water is not subject to the ebb and flow of the tide or included on the District’s list of Rivers and Harbors Act Section 10 navigable waters list, do NOT use this document to make the determination. The District must continue to follow the procedure outlined in 33 CFR part 329.14 to make a Rivers and Harbors Act Section 10 navigability determination.

<sup>3</sup> A stand-alone TNW determination is completed independently of a request for an AJD. A stand-alone TNW determination is conducted for a specific segment of river or stream or other type of waterbody, such as a lake, where independent upstream or downstream limits or lake borders are established. A stand-alone TNW determination should be completed following applicable guidance and should NOT be documented on the AJD form.

<sup>4</sup> Some excluded waters, such as (b)(2) and (b)(4), may not be specifically identified on the AJD form unless a requestor specifically asks a Corps district to do so. Corps Districts may, in case-by-case instances, choose to identify some or all of these waters within the review area.

<sup>5</sup> Because of the broad nature of the (b)(1) exclusion and in an effort to collect data on specific types of waters that would be covered by the (b)(1) exclusion, four sub-categories of (b)(1) exclusions were administratively created for the purposes of the AJD Form. These four sub-categories are not new exclusions, but are simply administrative distinctions and remain (b)(1) exclusions as defined by the NWPR.

- B. Typical year assessment(s): A typical year occurs over a rolling thirty year period and includes the analysis of precipitation and other climatic variables to establish a normal period range (seasonally or annually) for a specific geographic region where the aquatic resource occurs. One point-in-time data source, 10 October 2017 (Dry Season), with a corresponding APT report, were included in the evaluation of the site. The antecedent precipitation tool was utilized to determine typical year for point-in-time data sources. Potential wetland and stream identification was assessed on 10 October 2017. Based on the antecedent precipitation tool, 10 October 2017 is included during the WebWIMP dry season and has a Palmer Drought Severity Index of 1.56 Mild wetness. The 30-day rolling total for precipitation was within the 30-year normal range. Therefore, site conditions appeared to be within a typical year. The ephemeral feature had no flow at the time of investigation and Wetlands A-D had no connections to an (a)(1)-(a)(2) water.
- C. Additional comments to support AJD: The AJD boundary is located outside of the FEMA 100-year floodplain.
